Join us for a delightful holiday trip to Kansas City where the lights of The Plaza glow and the clip-clop of the horse's hooves set the mood for a very special Christmas tour. You'll start your trip at the Harry S. Truman Library & Museum in Independence. This newly-renovated facility exhibits the life and times of one of the most influential presidents of our time - Harry S. Truman. High-tech exhibits and objects of artistic and historic interest examine such topics as the challenges faced in the post-WWII years, the beginning of the Cold War, and more. Also on display is Truman's Oval Office in the White House with the original "The Buck Stops Here" sign on his desk. Next, visit the Arabia Steamboat Museum which displays a vast collection of frontier supplies from the 200 ton cargo ship - The Arabia Steamboat that sunk in the Missouri River in 1856. It's a fascinating look into the frontier days and how our country was settled. Head over to Union Station for the KC Rail Experience, an exhibit featuring railroad artifacts with "interactive" displays that showcase the diversity of train travel beginning with its peak in 1917 to the significance during the WWII years where half of all G.I.s deployed traveled under its great clock. By now, you'll have worked up an appetite so head over to the Golden Ox for a delicious Kansas City steak dinner with all the fixin's. Your trip would not be complete without time at the famous Country Club Plaza. With the beautiful lights that adorn the buildings and festive store windows, it will put you in the holiday mood in no time. A very special treat will be a horse-drawn carriage ride through The Plaza with the cold air nipping at your nose and the festive carriages, it will be the perfect way to end your trip. Then, it's time to head home after a fun Kansas City Christmas trip with Fun Tours.
