Your tour director will have fun activities to help you get to know your fellow travel mates on your way to Oklahoma City. This evening, join your new-found friends at a get-acquainted dinner.

DAY TWO—Department of Bureau & Engraving Tour/Ft. Worth Stockyards National Historic District/Gaylord "TEXAS" Hotel ICE! (B, D)

Sit back and relax as you make your way to Dallas. After lunch, take a very interesting tour of the U.S. Bureau of Engraving and Printing facility in Ft. Worth. Here you'll see what it takes to design and manufacture the dollar bills we use every day. Get a taste of the real west when you visit the Ft. Worth Stockyards National Historic District where galleries, restaurants, and shops occupy many of the preserved stockyard structures covering 125 acres of what was once the largest livestock market center in the southwest. You'll even have the chance to watch a cattle drive demonstration as wranglers on horseback guide the Ft. Worth herd down East Exchange Avenue. Check into your hotel for a little "R & R" before heading over to the incredible Gaylord "TEXAS" Resort for an evening of beautiful Christmas decorations and fun. The Gaylord "TEXAS" hotel has three themed areas — The Alamo, The River Walk, and Texas Hill Country. Each is unique and all decorated for the holidays in different themes. You'll have time to wander this incredible facility, but the highlight will be ICE! Sculptors from China are brought in to carve larger-than-life sculptures containing more than two-million lbs of ice. The walk-through display includes Santa's Workshop, Ice Slides, and much more. It is unbelievable!

DAY THREE—Dallas Cowboy Stadium Tour/Sixth Floor Museum/Glass Blowing & Bronze Demonstration/Wine Tasting/Home For The Holidays Show (B, D)

This morning, you have a treat in store when you get to tour the new Dallas Cowboy Stadium. This state-of-the-art facility is a work of art, and you just won't believe the size and grandeur of this new sports facility. Later this morning, visit the Sixth Floor Museum at Dealey Plaza which chronicles the life and legacy of President John F. Kennedy. After lunch, head back to Grapevine for a glass blowing and bronze and blacksmith demonstration. You'll also have time to shop Main Street for some fun Christmas ideas. Get a taste of the vine at one of Grapevine's fine wineries. Then, take some time to "R & R" at your hotel before a fun evening ahead. Enjoy dinner at one of Grapevine's fine local restaurants before heading over to the Grapevine Opry Theater for the holiday show "Home For The Holidays." This lively holiday show will put the "Merry" in your Christmas celebration.

DAY FOUR—National Cowboy & Western Heritage Museum/Joe B. Barnes Christmas Lights/Oklahoma City Memorial (B, D)

Depart Ft. Worth and head to Oklahoma City. Upon arrival, a "must see" is the National Cowboy & Western Heritage Museum. This 32-acre facility is a memorial to our western pioneers and has an extensive collection of art, historic artifacts and exhibits about the American Indian and pioneer life in realistic settings. The Rodeo Hall of Fame has legendary performers' portraits, trophies, and the western art collection features works by Albert Bierstadt, Fredrick Remington, and Charles M. Russell. There's also a western performers' gallery which shows the idealized west portrayed in motion pictures. This facility goes on and on and you'll have plenty of time to enjoy all that it has to offer. Take a little time to "R & R" at your hotel before a last dinner with your fellow travel mates at one of Oklahoma City's fine restaurants. Then, take a lights tour through the Joe B. Barnes Park with its beautifully-animated Christmas lights. Also, we'll make a trek down to the Oklahoma City Memorial to see the outdoor display lit up at night.
